The National Council of Urban Indian Health is excited to announce that Ms. Julia Wakeford has accepted a six month internship and will serve as a Policy Assistant to the Director of Congressional Relations. Julia is Yuchi and a member of the Muscogee (Creek) Nation of Oklahoma. She has experience working in tribal government and on tribal political campaigns. While in undergrad, she worked in Diversity and Inclusion as well as in Multicultural Admissions. Julia holds a B.A. in Indigenous Socio-Political Studies from Swarthmore College. We look forward to Julia using her talents and becoming a part of our dynamic team as NCUIH continues advocacy efforts on behalf of our members and Urban Indian health care issues.
