Tribal Veteran Advocate Conference To Be Held May 2-3, 2022

Category: Policy Blog
written by Alexandra Payan | April 21, 2022

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) will be hosting a two-day Tribal Veteran Advocate Conference on May 2 and 3, 2022 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. PST (1 p.m. to 6 p.m. EST). This conference will involve training on understanding VA benefits and programs and will provide updates about the latest news affecting American Indian and Alaska Native Veterans. Topics which will be addressed during the training include: specially adapted housing grants, advance care planning, Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers (PCAFC), and Native Veteran spouses and dependency.

To register for the virtual training, click here.