The National Council of Urban Indian Health (NCUIH) is pleased to announce the release of its 2024 Policy Priorities document, which outlines a summary of urban Indian organization (UIO) priorities for the Executive and Legislative branches of the government for 2024. These priorities were informed by NCUIH's 2023 Policy Assessment.

NCUIH hosted five focus groups to identify UIO policy priorities for 2024, as they relate to Indian Health Service (IHS)- designated facility types (full ambulatory, limited ambulatory, outreach and referral, and outpatient and residential). NCUIH worked with UIOs to identify policy priorities in 2024 under eight themes: full funding for native health initiatives, elevating native voices and fostering dialogue, building health equity, honoring promises to native veterans, embracing traditional healing and behavioral wellness, healing generational trauma and protecting native lives, addressing workforce recruitment and retention challenges, and improving the Indian Health Service.
